Dream in Color

There are so many benefits to coloring that it's interesting why your child has not picked up on the habit just yet! You see, coloring is a wonderful form of self-expression because there are no rules and special instructions that go with it. No one can tell you little ones that his/her color combinations do not work. That's up for him/her to figure out soon.

Kawaii Girls

Now you can color along with the master, Thomas Kinkade, painter of light. And what could be better than coloring these paintings with the timeless magic of classic Disney stories and their captivating characters? In this unique coloring book, sixty-three of Thomas Kinkade's Disney Dreams images are presented in color across from the black line art of the same image to be colored. Enter the world of the painter of light yourself, as you create your own renditions of these classic Disney character paintings, including Alice in Wonderland, Beauty and the Beast, Cinderella, The Lion King, Snow White, and, of course, Mickey and Minnie.

One Man's Dream

Harness the power of words and color your way to peace and tranquility Perfect for fans of Secret Garden and Color Me Calm, Color Your Dreams combines whimsical art with feel-good words and guided activities, using the power of language to bring mindfulness and peace to your life. These one-of-a-kind, hand-illustrated drawings go beyond the aesthetic and stress-relieving benefits of other adult coloring books by encouraging meditation and reflection on specific positive concepts, helping you to become an active participant in creating your ideal life.

Though over the years the stress of creating content frame by frame took its toll on my diminishing patience and well-being. It wasn't until I was introduced to color therapy books, that I realised how astonishingly relaxing and stress relieving they can truly be. Therefor I created 'Color Me In' a series of various different themes that aim to give those of all ages and interests an enjoyable and calming coloring experience. Giving the option of gifting this
