The Coyote Way (Vanished, #3)

Journey to The Lost Planet with five full-length novels! The Forgotten Commander Our planet, Mortuus, is lost and dying. A desolate place where a few lone survivors dwell. My men have lost hope. Our future is bleak. Longevity is a luxury we can't afford. The most we can hope for is survival. We've all but given up when an opportunity presents itself. Five females—a chance at a future. Procuring these women went against everything I'd been taught, but desperate times call for desperate measures. They're ours now. Asleep and made ready for breeding. We won't die out—lost and forgotten. It's our destiny to grow and once again inhabit our lonely planet. I am Breccan Aloisius, the forgotten commander. My people will have the future they deserve. I'll make sure of it. My mind is made up until she wakes and nothing goes as planned. The Vanished Specialist My lilapetal is dying and I can't save her. The woman who brought me back to life may not live long enough to see me truly happy. All the tests, the experiments have failed and I have failed her. If I don't devise a cure to save my alien, I'll spend the rest of my existence on Mortuus alone. The others believe my mate isn't strong enough to survive. That she can't breed and should be put back into cryosleep until she's healed. But I won't allow it. I will defy the only family I've ever known to save her. Even if it means vanishing into the unknown. She is all that matters and no amount of her protests will keep me from doing what I must to keep her safe. The Mad Lieutenant Her voice brought me back from the darkness, but I don't want the sweet relief she promises. Unlike the rest of the mortos on my planet, I don't want a mate. Especially not her. She's loud, boisterous, and doesn't take no for an answer. Unlike the rest of the alien females my brothers have woken from cryosleep, Molly doesn't find my growls intimidating. The more I try to ignore her, the more she tries to befriend me. I'd been taken captive once by the virus that nearly killed me. I bear its scars, not only on my body, but in my thoughts. No woman, not even one as beautiful as Molly, can heal me. I don't want her, but she needs me. The Uncertain Scientist I had everything I ever wanted. I was brilliant, successful, esteemed. Alone. But I didn't mind. I liked being alone. Until they stole me. And I wake up, captive, pregnant with an alien baby—and still a virgin. For a race of freaks nearing extinction, there seems to be far, far too many of them. Everywhere I turn, one of the mortos or their human mates wants to comfort me, make me feel welcome and safe. But I don't want to feel welcome or safe. I want the life they stole from me. None of them pay any heed to my angry tirades, least of all the father of the child I carry. There's no doubt he wants the baby, but that isn't all he wants. In fact, I'm beginning to think if some of the mortos had their way I'd never be alone again. The Lonely Orphan Our planet has hope. Still decaying and barely inhabitable, but ours. With the arrival of the females, we're no longer lonely. Well, some of us aren't. For the rest, we ache for what they have. Peace. Happiness. Love. But where the other unmatched Mortos want a mate to call their own, I'm different. Life cruelly made me fall for the one person I'm not allowed to have. Bitterness and jealousy are my mates now. I've resigned myself to the fact that I will always be alone. Until my commander sends me on a mission to rescue someone very important to his mate—her sister. A woman so different. So imperfect. So maddeningly defiant. Someone I have no interest in whatsoever. This feral female will never own my heart. Or so I thought. Love always has a plan of its own.
